

Finca VILLACRECES

Deep in the middle of a bicentenary pine wood and surrounded northwards by the river Duero we find a unique place that gathers together charm, tradition and an outstanding landscape. An estate with 110 hectares, where the vineyard merge together with nature in Finca Villacreces, a winery located deep in the hearth of the so called "Golden Mille" of Ribera del Duero.

Finca Villacreces history begins at the 13th century, when a congregation of Cistercian monks erected a monastery for their spiritual retreat and winemaking in this place.

At Finca Villacreces we give you the chance to learn about winemaking and we also offer some other enoturistic options for those wine enthusiasts who are willing to enjoy another type of experiences.

Villacreces Tour

Enjoy an incredible experience at Finca Villacreces.

An interesting tour that starts on the vineyard, knowing firsthand viticulture work we do in each of our 15 parcels where we grow Tempranillo, Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot grapes.

You can follow the same process that the grapes make in the winery, visiting the reception points on selection table, fermentation processes and ageing areas full of French oak barrels.

You can find out the past of Finca Villacreces thanks the historical áreas of the building getting information of this place since XIV Century.

Discover the secret of the hidden jewel of Ribera del Duero and taste with us two of our wines: PRUNO and FINCA VILLACRECES, with an appetizer of local products and Spanish gourmet olive oil.
